This book was made to help your friendships along.

There is nothing I want more
Than the memories friendship brings
For in my heart I will store
Friendly people and happy things.

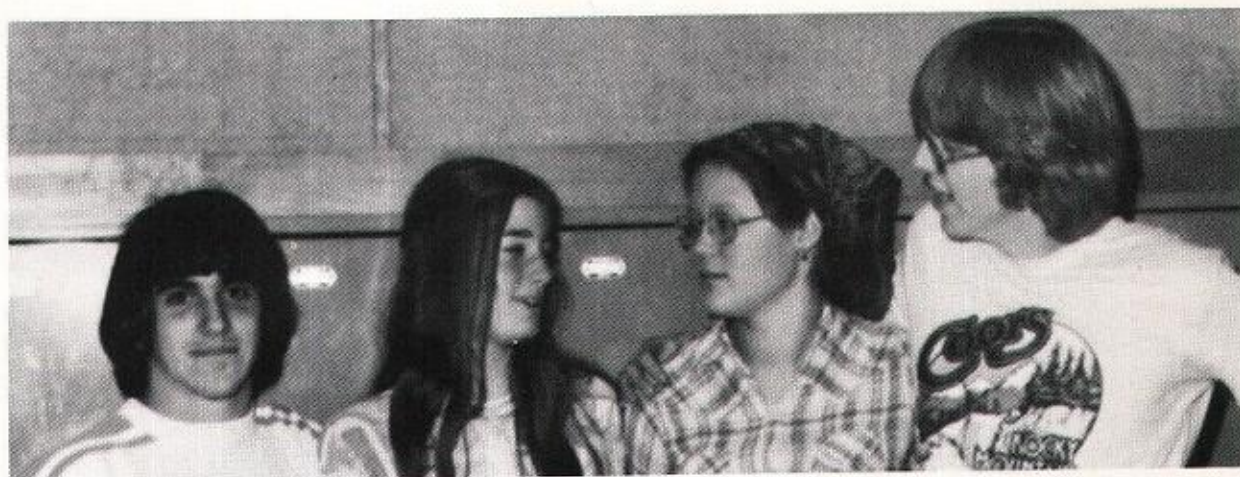

Kathy Wheeler

A true friend can talk and laugh and cry . . . a friend will listen and love. It's gotta be mutual . . . to work.
Realizing similarities can work out differences.

You, my friend, are my tie with life.

In you, I see the way.

Friend,
 Be not afraid
 To touch life.
 Do not be shy, nor back away from Sorrow or sadness.
 Experience life as much as Possible, for you will have
 But one chance only.
 Do not live on an island, nor hide inside yourself.
 But know satisfaction and disappointment,
 Joy and sadness,
 For if you hide from these things you will miss the most Wonderful part of living —
 Love
 And without this, you will not find true happiness.
 That gift only comes when you give of
 Your most precious possession —
 Yourself.

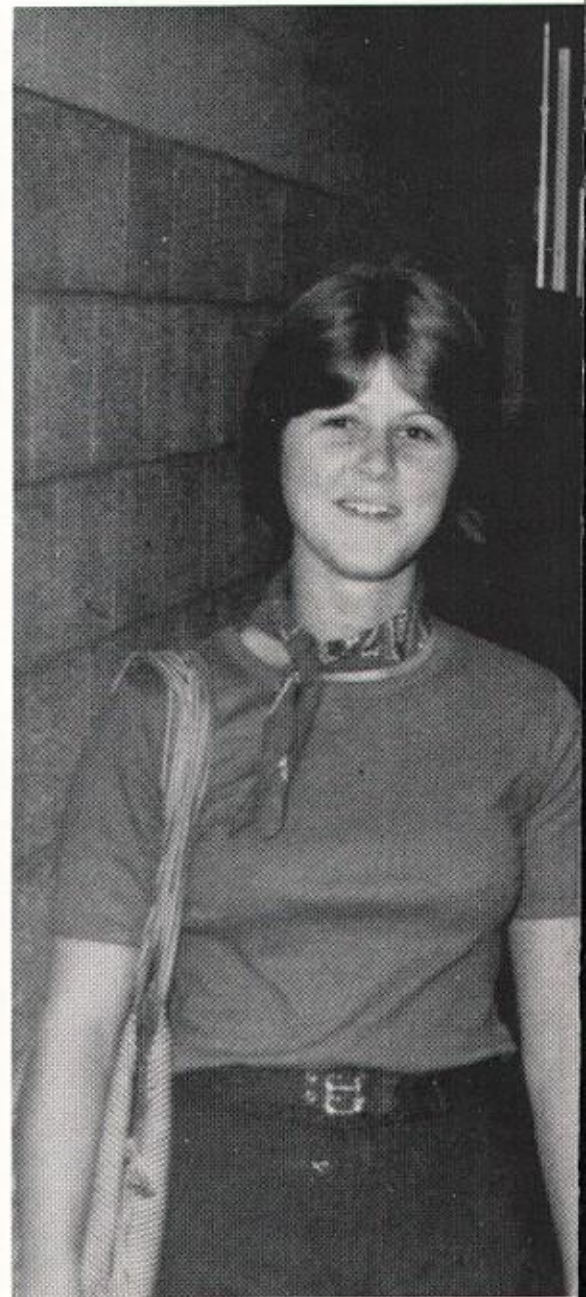

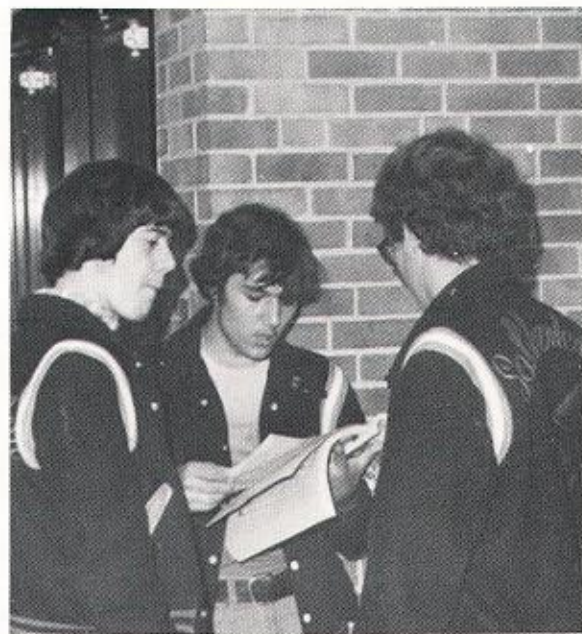

Francine Shriver

FRIEND

A friend is someone
 You can talk to.
 Someone who listens and understands your problems
 And you.
 A friend is someone who feels at ease with you.
 You can paint your world
 Together
 Or share your secret hopes.
 You play practical jokes, go places, do things,
 Laugh, cry, fall,
 Pick up the pieces of your life
 And, with each other's support and courage, Continue on.
 Life will never be shattered if you have a friend, because
 A friend is someone who Cares.

Francine Shriver

Sweetly singing songs of what we leave behind. Knowing there's an end to each happy day: we must sing

sweet songs for the worlds to come.

Kathy Wheeler

To be rich in friends is to be poor in nothing.

Lilian Whiting

Life is made up of so many Different things.
 It's made up of the people
 That touch us in such very special ways,
 Of books and paintings,
 Rocks and sand and great salty seas.
 Life is made up of those things that
 Fill us with love
 Or change our thoughts and attitudes.
 Life is made up of
 Learning in many different ways,
 Of picnics and parties and silent hours spent at home,
 Of walking hand in hand
 Under blue moonlit stars,
 Falling in love,
 And a few wellshed tears.
 It consists of being frightened at times,
 And saying goodbye once in a while.
 And living in the presence of Death.
 But most of all,
 Life is made up of those treasured moments
 That were somehow more special than any other,
 And, at the end of the road,
 Those special memories
 Will be what made life
 Worth living.

Francine Shriver

APPALACHIAN DAY

Music, homemade food, booth displays, handmade crafts, a style show, and a decorated Commons combined to make the fall Appalachian Festival come alive and carry the spirit of the day back to nostalgic times.

The Commons was gayly decorated with quilts and items of other booths displaying aspects of pioneer and homespun activities of the Appalachian Culture. Other booths featured homemade root beer, apple cider, ice cream, the churning of butter, and the making of lye soap.

One booth featured home remedies and cures passed down from past generations. Another displayed a collection of antique dolls and other toys used by children of the Appalachian frontier. These toys were brought to the festival by the Yesteryear Toy Company.

Highlighting the celebration was a style show featuring pioneer clothing. The girls either made their long gingham dresses or borrowed them. Mrs. Barber assisted the boys in the selection and construction of their garments.

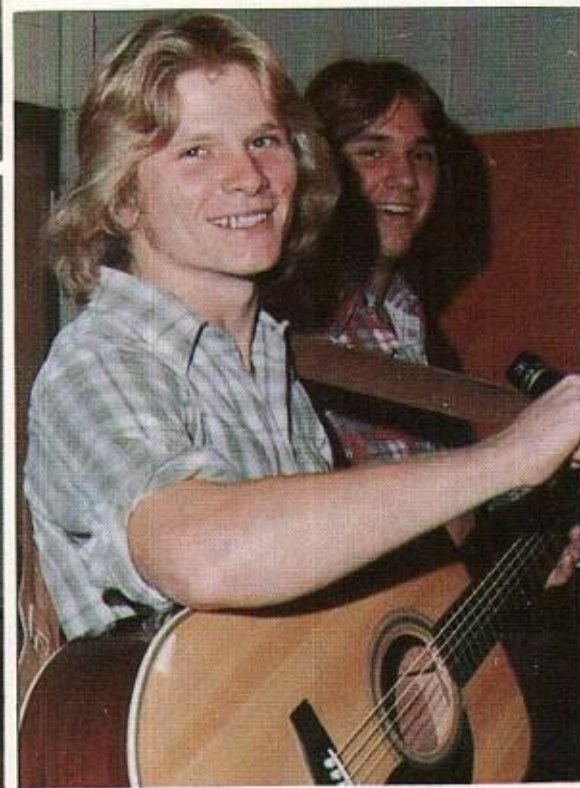

HERITAGE RELIVED

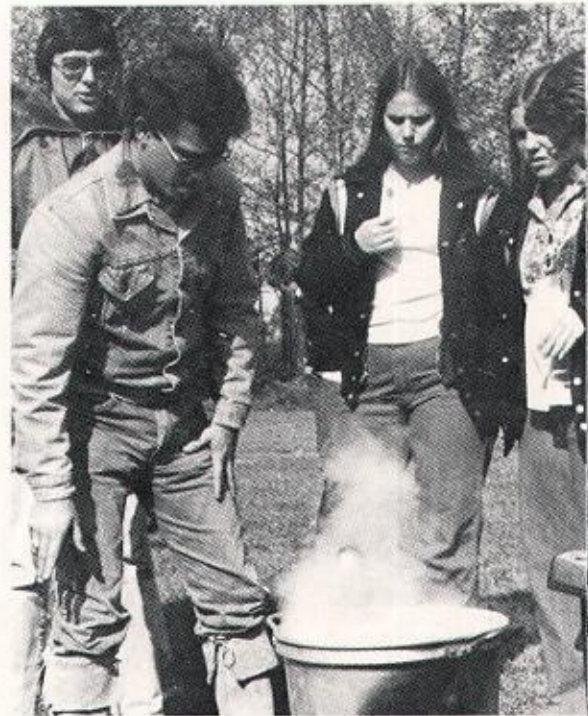

Entertaining in the Commons front area were banjo-guitar players, Tim Nutter, James Henson, Webster Struthers, and singer, Jim Phelps. Sitting on hay bales outside were the "Bluegrass Music Players" Jimmy Gabehart, Libby White and Robin Welter.

Senior Paige Brough's father constructed homemade Dulcimer instruments which were on display for students to observe and try out.

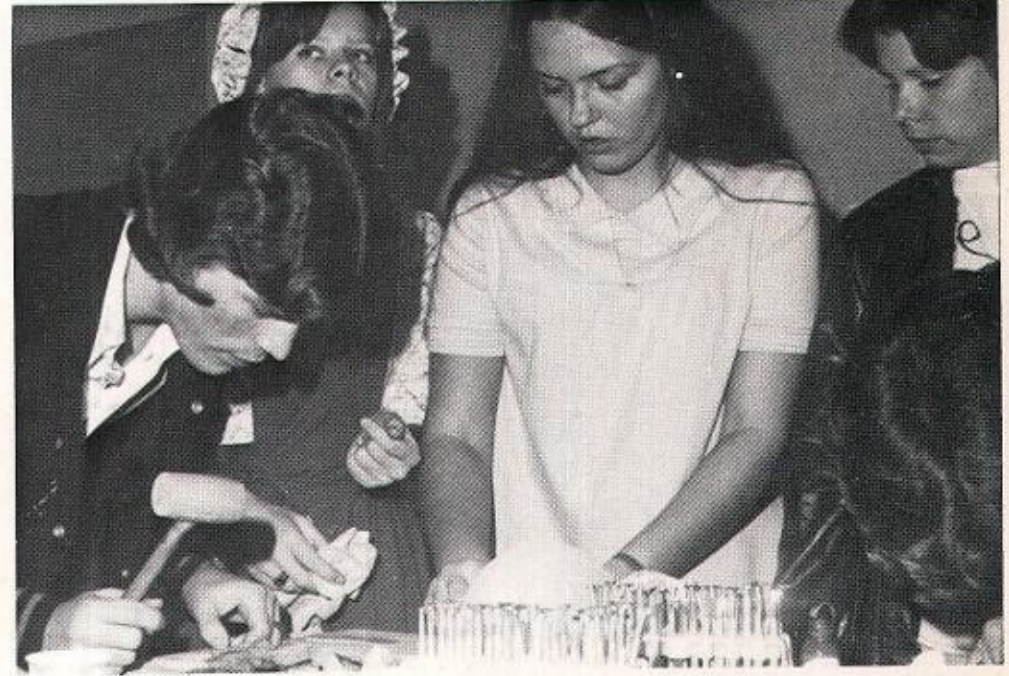

Items sold were: homemade pot holders, South Charleston key rings, leather goods, sassafrass tea, ham sandwiches, homemade rock candy, honey, and West Virginia stomper dolls.

The event was a cooperative effort of the general Senior English classes, sociology, and home economics students and was supervised by teachers, Richard Dunlap, Mrs. Bailey Ann Mills, Mrs. Rita Barber, and Miss Libby Beury.

The 30th Annual Kanawha County Majorette Festival was held on September 21, 1976. SC Majorettes spent all summer learning and perfecting routines for this exciting night.

During the 1st half of the show, each school's girl twirler performed, and the majorettes showed off their corps routines. Our girls' hard work paid off, and they won 3rd place with their routine to "National Emblem."

Though the first half was good, the second was even flashier. While the originality props were being set up, each school's boy twirler performed. SC's Bart Roberts took the 1st place trophy in this category for his fifth time (twice in junior high — three times in high school) with a showy routine to "Gangbuster's."

Head majorette, Kim Baughman, receives the trophy for 3rd place corps routine.

Teresa Harper practices her shooting ability.

Terri Dent waits her turn.

Becky Lyons plays the good guy to "Rhinstone Cowboy."

Teresa Brooks sweats it out during summer practice.

Becky Lyons, Teresa Brooks, and Kim Baughman perform the corps routine Festival night.

Majorette Festival

Are the majorettes hoping the tape player won't work?

By then the six prop boys had brought out the colorful wooden props built by the majorettes over the summer. A jail, saloon, and bank provided the background for a routine to "Bad, Bad Leroy Brown" in which masked bandits shot up the town. After robbing the bank to "The Pink Panther," SC majorettes made a quick change and finished up in sparkling white cowboy outfits, dancing to "Rhinestone Cowboy." SC captured third in the originality category.

Throughout the evening, the eleven bands were graded on marching and playing ability, and again SC won third. A very successful night for South Charleston's band and majorettes!

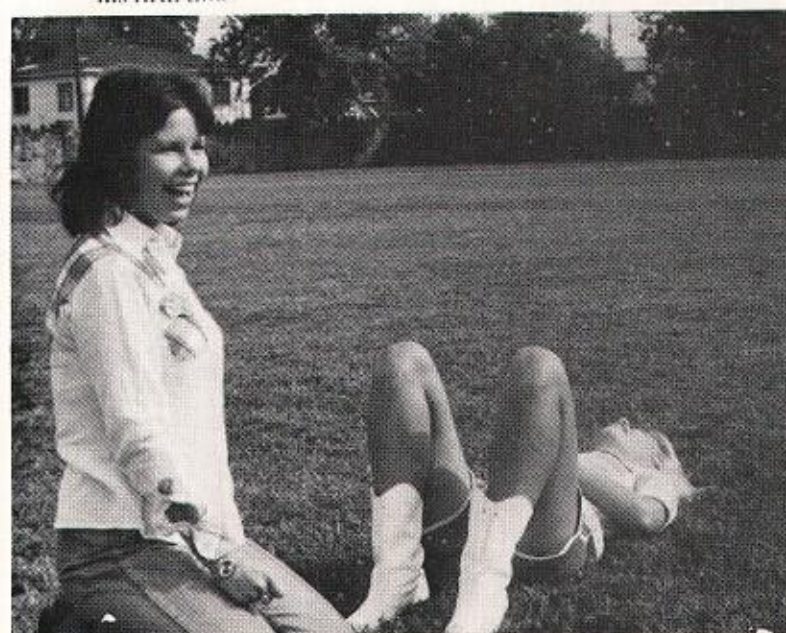

Because of an excellent performance, SC band won 3rd place marching and playing.

Bart Roberts receives the 1st place boy twirler trophy for his fifth time

Mary Ackenhusen and Susan Martin make plans to blow up the bank to "The Pink Panther."

Susan Martin and Cathy Rollins find something to laugh about even at practice.

School days — an activity we're all involved with . . .
it makes us laugh, it makes us work.

It makes us be with friends
each day.

MAYFAIR '77

On Friday, May 6, SCHS came alive with the spirit of Victorian England. The fourth annual Mayfair, held by the Senior College Prep. English Classes, was a replica of The Great Exhibition of 1851. The Commons was transformed into the Crystal Palace, and the outside was turned into London Street, with booths in both areas.

There were many activities during the two hour fair. Tennis, musical scenes from the play "Oliver," a circus complete with clowns, weight lifters, a snake charmer, and siamese twins, and two riots kept the action going.

One popular booth was Scotland Yard, where a person could have someone arrested and put into jail (for a small fee, of course!)

The afternoon climaxed with the coronation of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, and their coronation dance. Mary Ackenhusen was crowned Queen Victoria, with Francy Rawlins, Bev Ratliff, and Kim Baughman in her court. Tim McClung was named Prince Albert, and his lords were Dave Long, David Woodall, and Clay Christian.

Football — Third Straight

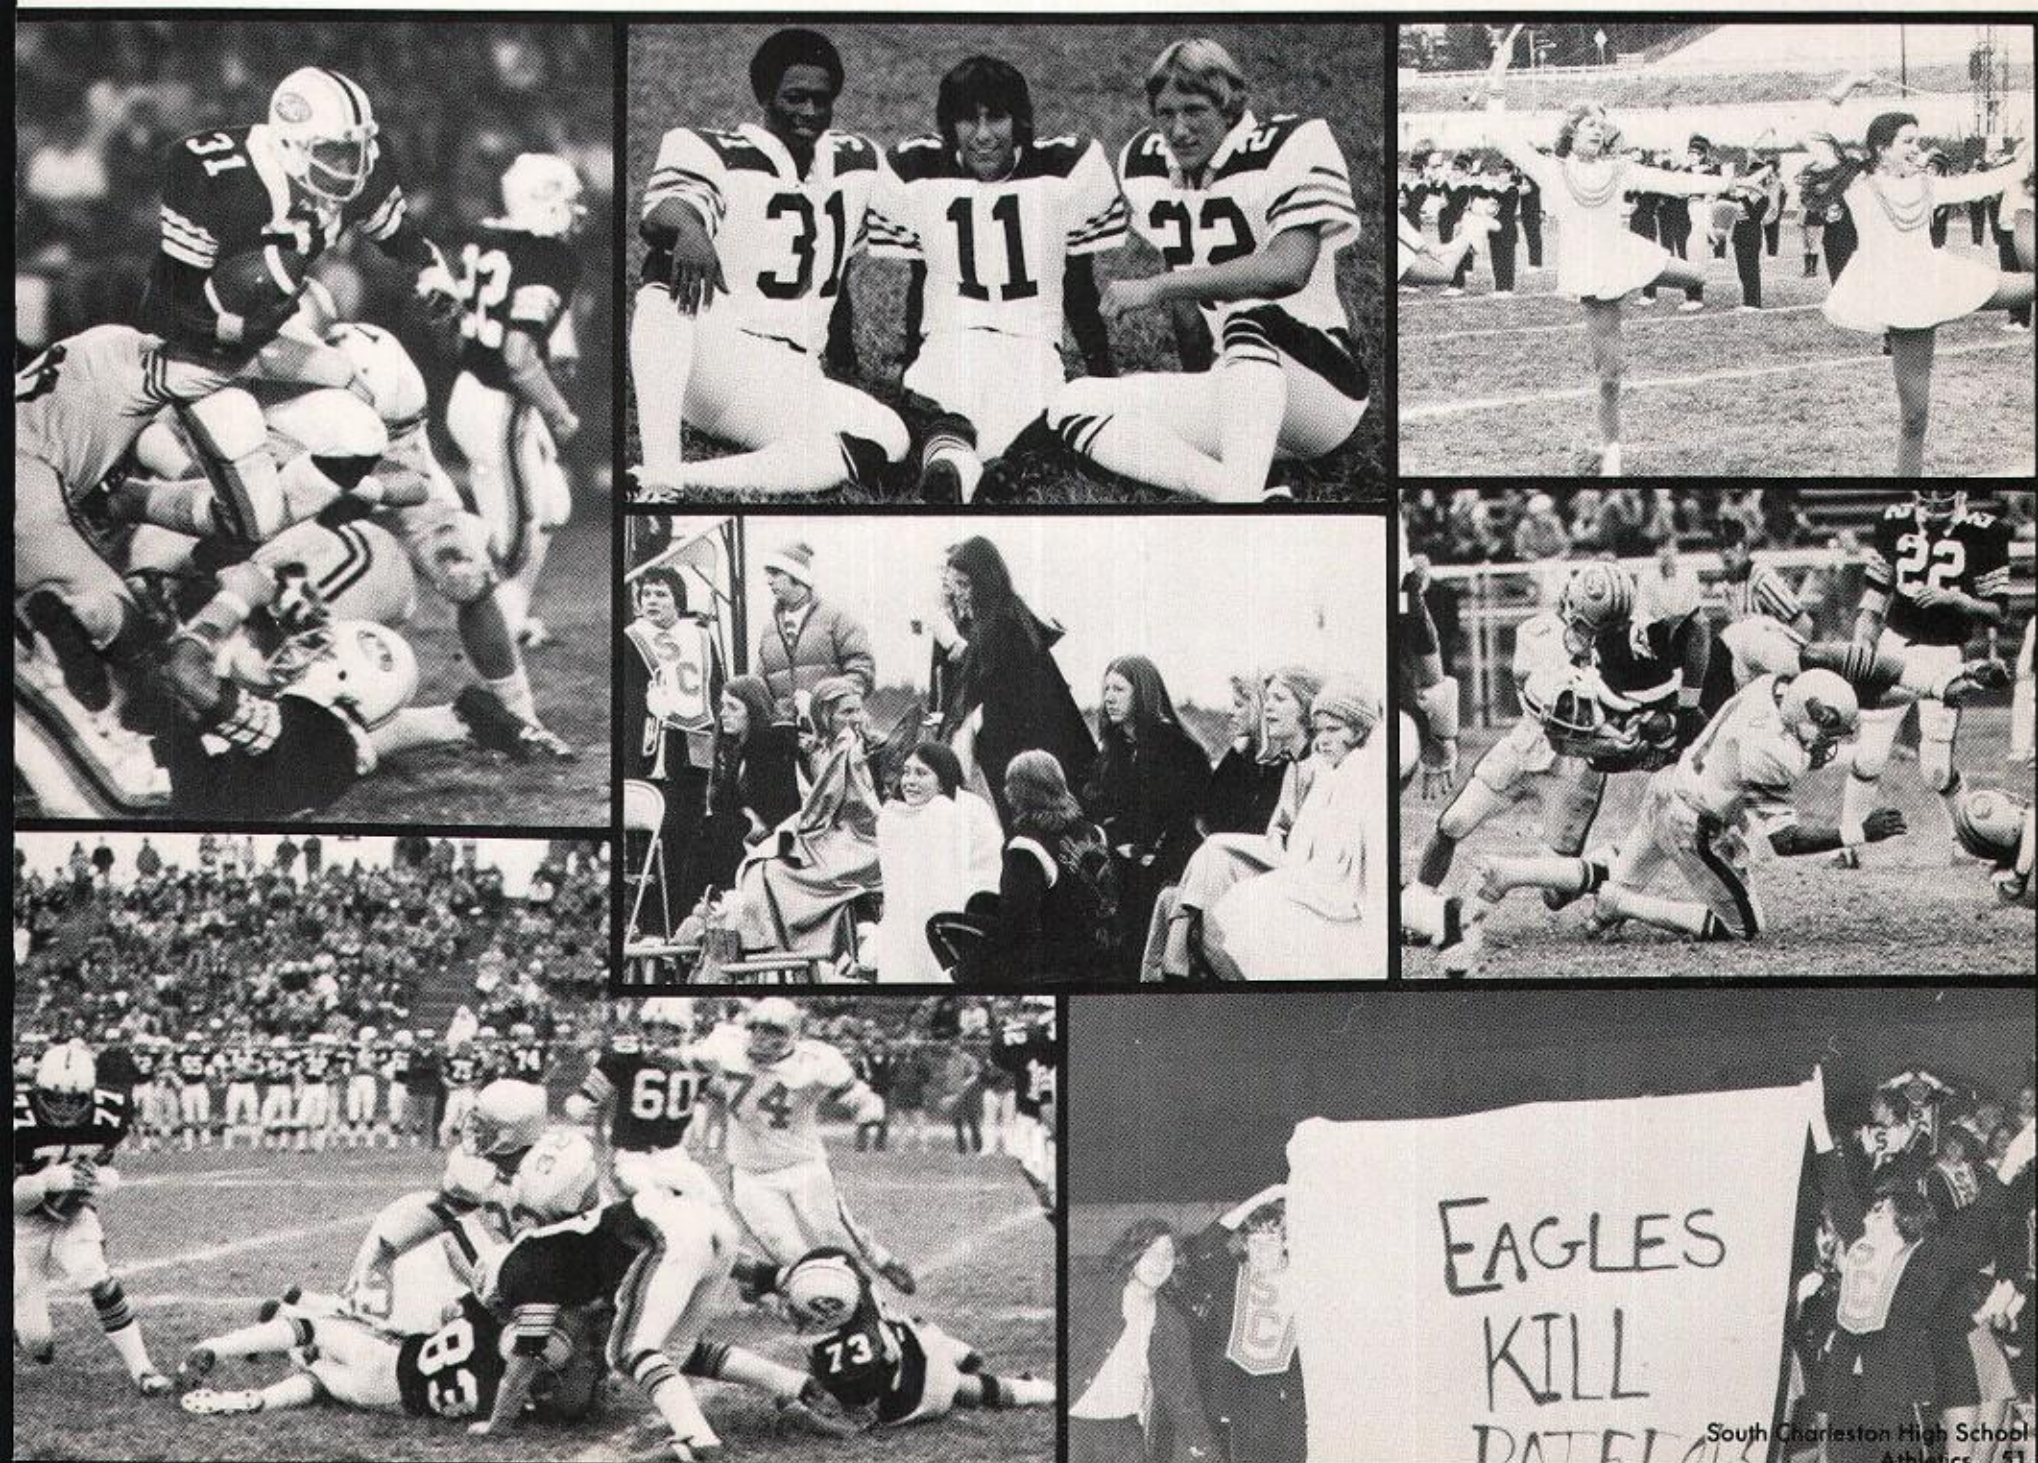

The 1977 football team compiled a 6-3 record, quite an accomplishment considering all the gaps left from last year's state-runner-up team. It was a gratifying year for a team that wasn't supposed to go far.

The highlight of the season was, without a doubt, the victory over GW. SC hadn't beaten GW since 1972. A most touching moment occurred in the final game at Dunbar when Robert Alexander closed out his amazing career. He was given several standing ovations in addition to breaking the state rushing record.

The Black Eagle Wrestling team captured fifth place in the Kanawha Valley Conference and fourth in the Regional Wrestling Tournament.

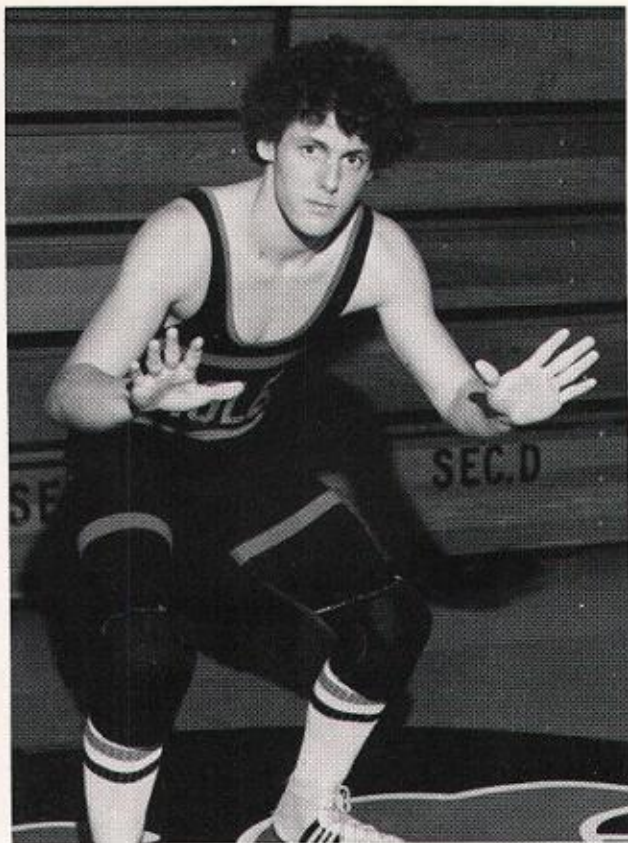

The Eagles split a triangular match with a loss to Herbert Hoover and a win over Charleston. Next, the grapplers went to challenge G.W. plus East Bank. In the outcome the Eagles were defeated by the Patriots although they won over the Bank. The team then wrestled Stonewall, losing 22-25. The Eagles then suprised Dupont by beating them 39-18. In the final match S.C. smashed Dunbar 50-15.

The State Tournament qualifiers were: Juniors — David Harper, and Mike Gibson, Seniors: Kip Lee, Chuck Akers, Pete Polcari, and Chip Berthelot.

CROSS COUNTRY

Takes Great Strides

Coach Dunlap's Cross Country Team participated in five meets. The meets were held at Coonskin Park, St. Albans, George Washington High School and Cato Park.

The average number of competitors in meets was 18.

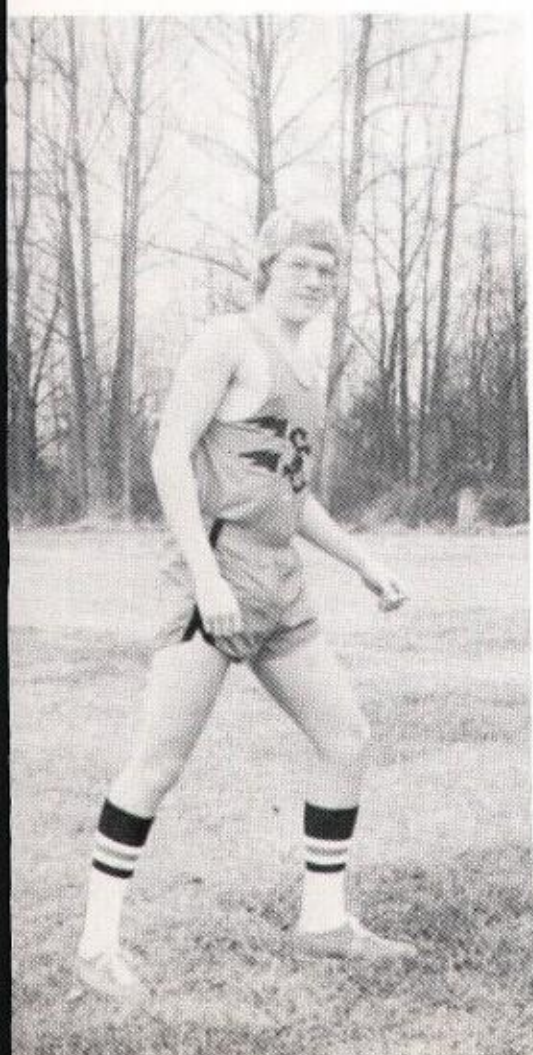

The weekly meets consisted of distances from two to three miles and had lung-bursting uphill stretches.

This is the first year that the team also had male members. South Charleston had more girls taking part than any other school.

The boys' tennis team did a great job this year. They placed first in the KVC after defeating St. Albans, who beat them earlier in seasonal play. Our overall tennis record was ten and one.

All six of the boys qualified for the state tournaments, where they finished second. Matt Woo was the only one to win a trophy for first place in the fourth position.

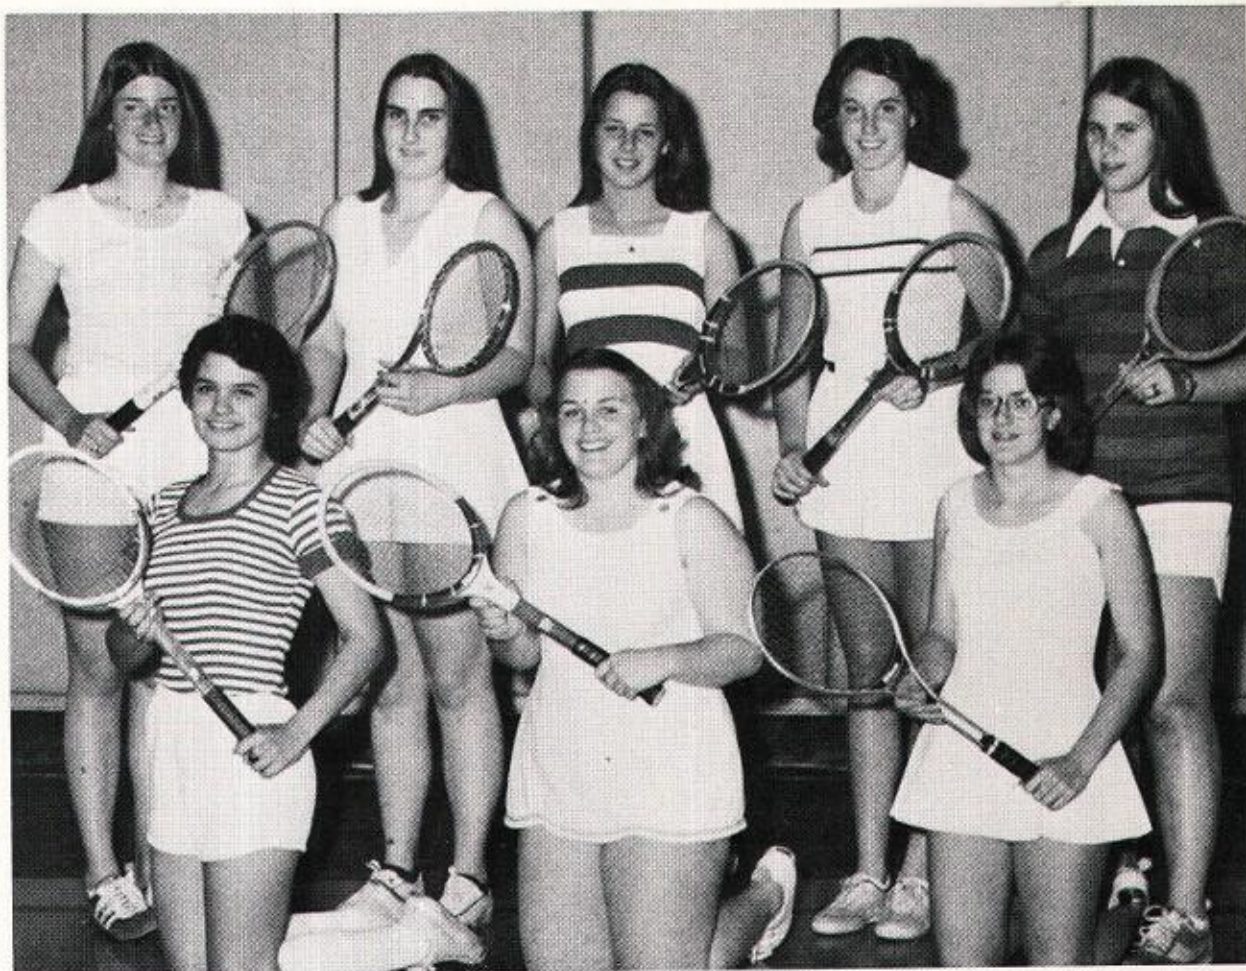

Our thanks goes to Mr. Nichols and the boys, who played super tennis.

SENIOR — Keith Burton

TENNIS

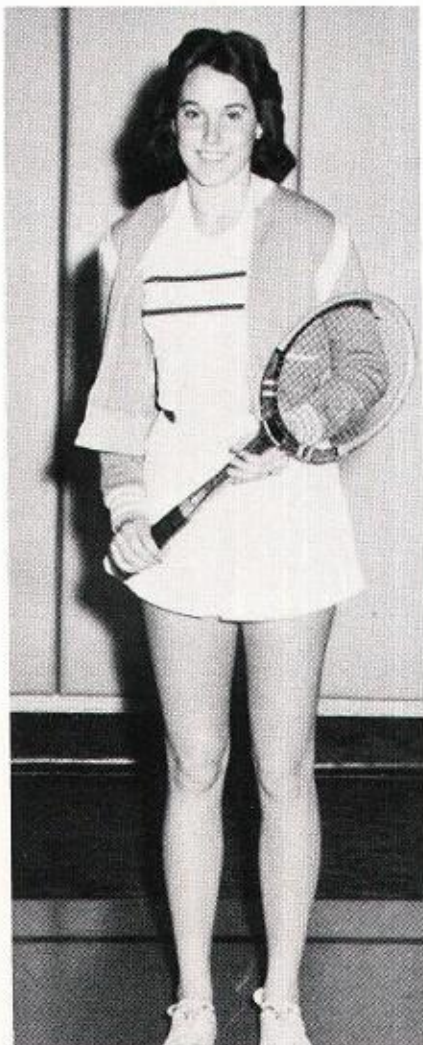

The girls' tennis team finished with a record of 4 wins and 7 losses this season. In regional play the team qualified three girls: Carol Skees, Pam Glazier, and Debbie Dorsey. Debbie was the Region Three winner at the fifth Position. In State Tournament play Debbie Dorsey was the only girl who played in the finals. Debbie emerged as a winner in the number two position in the state.

¿QUÉ PASA?

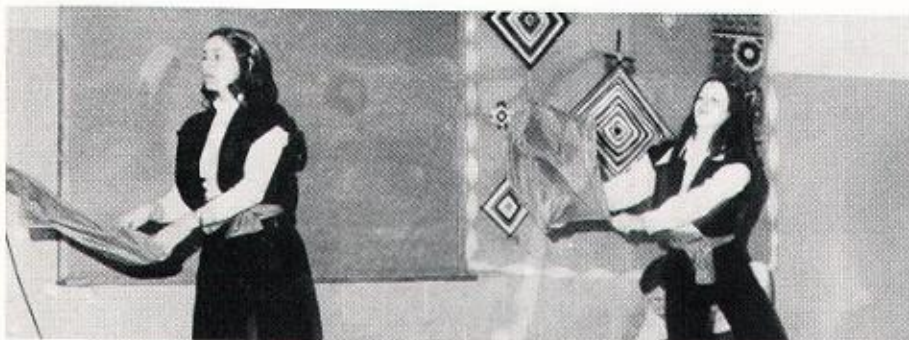

SCHS is very proud of the Spanish club, one of our largest organizations. This club is known throughout Kanawha County for its fiestas and Spanish dancers, who have performed at schools and on television.

Some of the Spanish students who are in Spanish III teach Spanish to 5th and 6th graders at near-by elementary schools.

Also, sophomore Sandy Kiser, has been accepted by the International Fellowship Inc. to become a foreign exchange student to Columbia.

What a super club and our thanks goes to Senoras Forbes and Koehn!

WHAT'S HAPPENIN'

Maria entertains our students

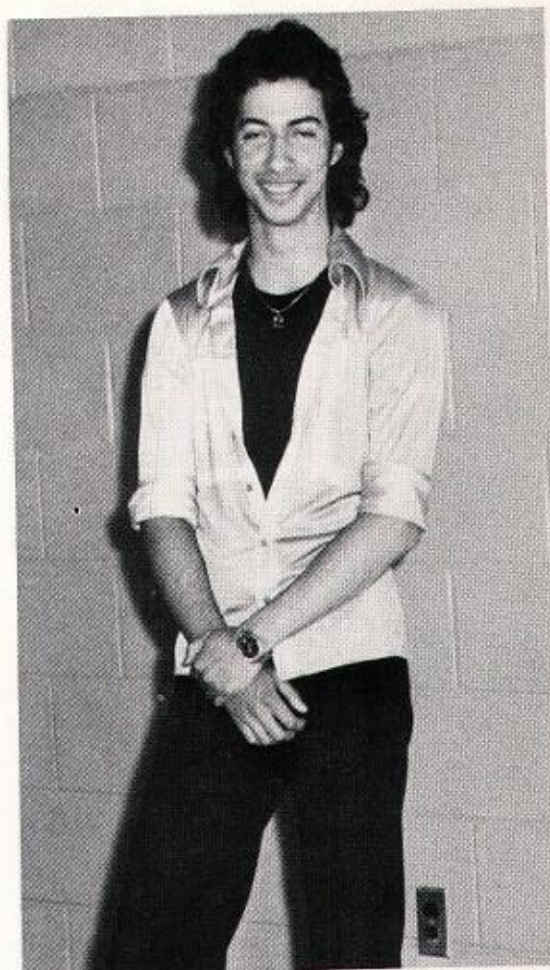

A typical Spanish dance

Our Amity Aides

One of the biggest surprises Antonio Valensuela had for the South Charleston students was his ability to speak English. Antonio is from Monterrey, Mexico where his parents insisted he attend an English-speaking school. Antonio helps Mrs. Forbes with second year Spanish classes. While attending South Charleston Antonio has taken the following classes: Math Analysis, World Cultures, Grammar Review, Gym, English, and IMC. His main reasons for coming to the United States are to perfect his English and to travel.

Our exchange student

The dance of the "Little Old Men"

The Amity Institute is a program different from our foreign exchange program. The Institute sends to American schools foreign students as teacher-aides. Our Amity Aide, Maria de Carmen Compan, is a lawyer in Vera Cruz, Mexico. She helps Mrs. Forbes and Mrs. Koehn in their Spanish classes.

Marina Molano, from Columbia, is staying with her brother who lives in South Charleston. Even though she did not come to us through the Amity Program, she is serving as a teacher-aide and is also improving her English.

ALL AMERICAN — ROBERT ALEXANDER

GOOD LUCK, ROBERT!!!

GIRLS' STATE

Sara Johe, Kim Baughman, Diane Lewis, Lisa Salamie

During the summer boys and girls are chosen to attend camps at Jackson's M West Virginia during June 6-12, 1976. The girls are chosen by the American Legi Women's Auxiliary, and the boys are chosen by the American Legion.

BOYS' STATE

While at their respective camps, the students learned about state government and held mock elections for governor and other state offices. The offices held at Boys' State were: John Fox — County Clerk, Pete Polcari — Circuit Judge, Mark Taylor — Mayor, and Tim McClung — Mayor. At Girls' State the offices held were: Sara Johe — County Clerk, Alternate Senator to Girls' Nation, Kim Baughman — Sheriff, Lisa Salamie — Senator, and Diane Lewis — City Councilman.

Tim McClung, Pete Polcari, Mark Taylor, John Fox

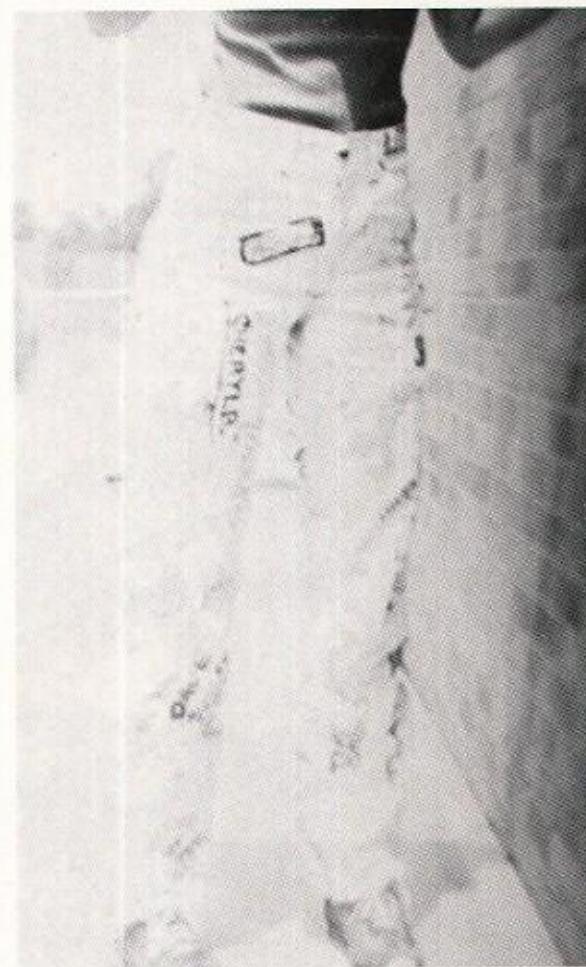

CAMP HORSESHOE

Each summer students are chosen to attend Camp Horseshoe, West Virginia. During the week of June 6-12, 1976, South Charleston High students attended this camp. While they were at the camp, they learned how to improve their community and their school.

Among the events that took place were a nine-mile hike and a "polar bear" swim. The "polar bear" swim was an event which took place at 5 a.m. in a nearby ice-cold river.

Senior Wills

I, Wayne Richards, do will and bequeath my wrestling ability to Butch Ewart and my shortness to Kathy Tallarico, may she always be shorter than I am.

I, Cynthia Renee Pauley, being of unsound mind and even unsound body hereby will and bequeath my "dear" saying to Debbie Anderson; and all my singing ability (really a lot) to Michele Dunlap; and all the guys at SC to Terry Sufface and Brenda Lore; all senior privileges to anyone who can figure out what they are, luck to the Typing III classes next year (You're gonna need it!) And in conclusion, (finally) all the luck in the world to everyone at SC and all my school spirit and love for SC to the class of '78.

I, Steve Miller, will my disappointing baseball season of my senior year to Donnie Dent, Noah's Ark to Joey Moore, and my automatic car to Eric Young so he won't stall his standard in front of my house everyday.

I, Mark Jeffries, hereby bequeath my bass voice to Elizabeth Birch, my piano ability to David Stern and my good looks to Curtis Arnold (use them wisely.).

I, Thomas R. McCrone, have nothin' to will away.

I, Roxanne Means, do will my great technique of getting off of the lot to Robin Mullen, and my three parking spaces in the front row to Pam Whitten in hopes that she won't get her car hit and always get off the lot first.

I, David Runyon, do hereby will all of the sophomores Burger-Chef Tee-shirts, so they can run Mac out of business.

I, Chuck Sisson, of sound mind and a great body, do will and bequeath my worn out baseball bench pants to any sophomore who has a good seat. I also will my superior shop ability to Mr. Ashley.

I, Carol Skees, will Pam Glazier the ability to talk about people behind their back when they're standing right in front of her.

I, Kim Glazier, will my ability to get along with Miss Shaver and Miss Bratt to Pamela Molly, my great jock ability to Karen Parsons and Becky Lyons, a 10 lb. bag of Idaho Potatoes to "Pig" Freeman, the good times on Friday nights to Julie Struthers and "Buffalo Breath" to Patty Schultz.

I, Valerie Kiser, do hereby will and bequeath my good grades to Rocky Davidson, and my locker to my sister Sandy who has used it during the whole year anyway.

I, James Dean, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my study habits to James Saunders.

I, Kathy Walther, hereby will my ability to get off the parking lot to my sister Gail and my tennis ability and my blue flip-flops to Helen Watters.

I, Teresa Walker, being of both sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath to all students of South Charleston High School all the holes in the road and to all the seniors, the many senior privileges that the seniors of 77 enjoyed so much.

I, Steve Higginbotham, will my smashed up Ford to Steve Molin.

I, Bart Roberts, do will my chair in band to Kathy Tallarico, my parking spot on Mt. Alfa to anyone who is brave enough to drive the road. And I will our bread in Mexico to Martha Tucci, Lea Ann Richards, and Kelly Akers.

I, Loretta Miller, do will and bequeath my ability to slide through a crisis with relatively little trouble to Paula Brough.

I, Alex Derenburger, do will my everlasting ability to keep statistics for Coach Walton and the basketball team to Rick Atkinson or whoever he can find to do the impossible task.

and Testaments . . .

Donna Goodnight, being of sound mind, do hereby will to the sophomores, juniors and seniors of 1978, all the maturity to get through the hassles of high school, all the maturity they'll need to put up with the faculty, and all the determination they'll need to be able to stay in long enough to finally graduate and get out.

Bernie Frame, do hereby will my parking space on the Teachers' parking lot to anyone who wants it.

Joan Uhler, will the 5th period example table in the library and all of our tribe at lunch to Mike Castleberry, Mrs. Riling, and some fun juniors.

Pam Robinson, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath my brains to David Heston, which I know he could use, and to the rest of the sophomores and juniors good luck at S.C. next year.

Sherry Smith, being of sound mind and short body do hereby will and bequeath my "lucky" slide rule to Earl Melton, my outstanding athletic ability to David Heston, who needs all he can get, and my "Rocky" album to Jerry Horton so he can practice his one-handed pushups.

Tammy Huffman, do hereby will and bequeath my good grades to my brother, Jeff, for Mom's sake.

Beth Horton, being of sound mind and body, hereby will my position in Honor Society to my brother, Jerry, who would never get there otherwise.

David Brown, leave my worn out "Nike" running shoes and my ability not to roar at Cross Country Meets to Eddie Frizzel and my ping-pong ability and a cracked ping-pong ball to Dorse Cross.

Debbie Jones, will my seat in band to Martha and my "Montezuma's Revenge" to Mr. Pate.

Sunny Hammond, being of questionably sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath one dozen eggs to Gary Strickland and my artistic abilities to Joyce Sutherland.

Kevin Scott Motley, do hereby bequeath my yellow car to Philip Litteral in hopes that it breaks down for him as much as it did for me and my "shoestring technique" to Betsy Burnette.

Robert Sylvester, being of sound mind and thin body, do will and bequeath my superior baseball mind to Coach Jim Fout.

Sara Johe, will my "camera arm" to Cack Fox and my ability to put up with Brenda C. to Cathy King.

Francy Rawlins, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my intelligence and knowledge in the field of algebra to Karen Parsons . . . better luck next year. I also will to Tim Blair my seat on the couch at his house.

Other Wright being of sound mind and body, do will my comb to Rick Posey in hopes that he might use it once in a while.

Tim "Thunder" Thornton, leave to Mark Grandon the following: my position on the football team, my timidity, and a box of tissues to blow his brains out. To Joe Bare, I leave my very high batting average, my uncanny ability to get picked off fast, and my style of missing a routine fly ball.

Antonio Valenzuela, will my Spanish accent to Mrs. Forbes and my English accent to Mrs. Minsker.

Francine Shriver, do hereby leave my mind to Becky Miller, my secrets to my sister, and my dreams to the future.

SENIORS ATTEND BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

The Fifty-First Annual Baccalaureate Services of South Charleston High School were held at the First Church of the Nazarene on Sunday evening, May 29, 1977 at 8:00 p.m.

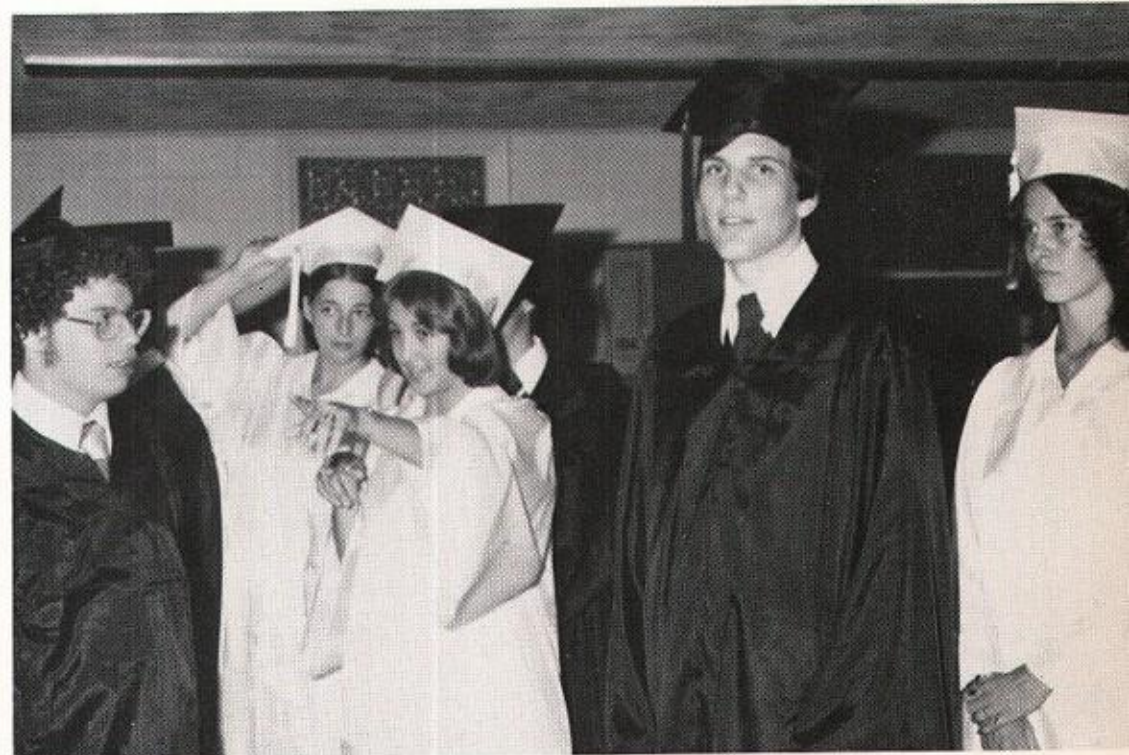

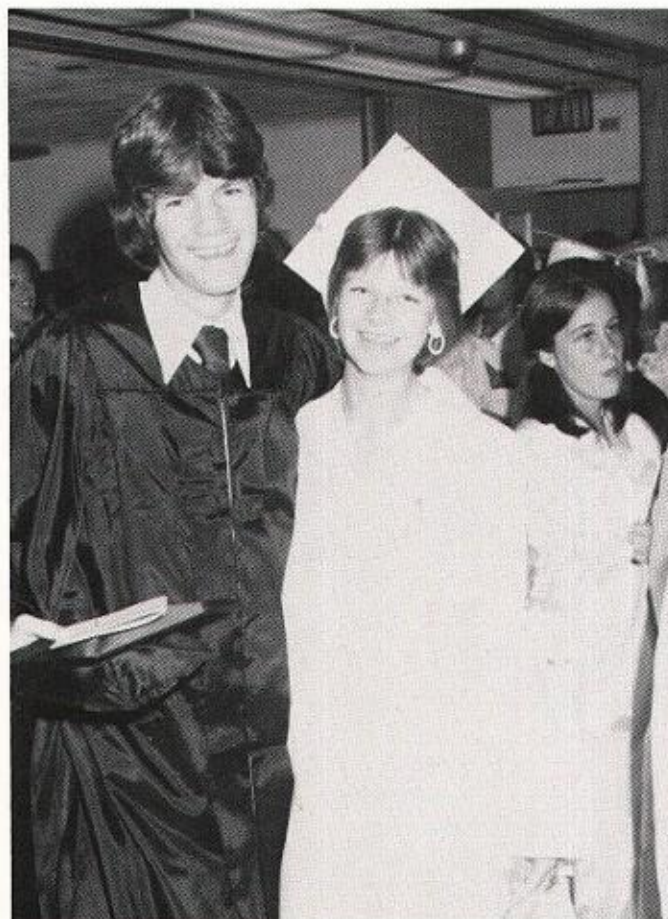

The Invocation was presented by the Reverend Arnold O. Belcher followed by the sermon, "The Greatest Challenge of Them All," by the Reverend Harold Runyan.

The service ended with a Benediction by the Reverend Eddie Grigsby. The Chorale provided the music for the service and Sara Grace Johe presided.

The Fifty-First Annual Commencement of South Charleston Senior High School was held in the Municipal Auditorium on Thursday, June 2, at 8:00 p.m. The ceremonies were honored with the presence of the Reverend David Wayne Smith, Minister of the Decatur Presbyterian Church, Decatur, Georgia. Reverend Smith gave the formal commencement address. Principal Merrell S. McIlwain presented the diplomas as Vice Principal Gary W. Strickland read the list of Graduates. Elizabeth Lawton Beury was the Senior Coordinator, and the music was directed by James Pate, Band Director, and N. David Stern, Chorale Director.

Sara Grace Johe, Senior Class President, gave the invocation and the speaker was introduced by Marilyn Lee Basham, Student Council President.

Honors included Valedictorian David Edwin Mead and Salutatorian, Kim Marie Hanna.

Reverend David Wayne Smith gives the Commencement Address.

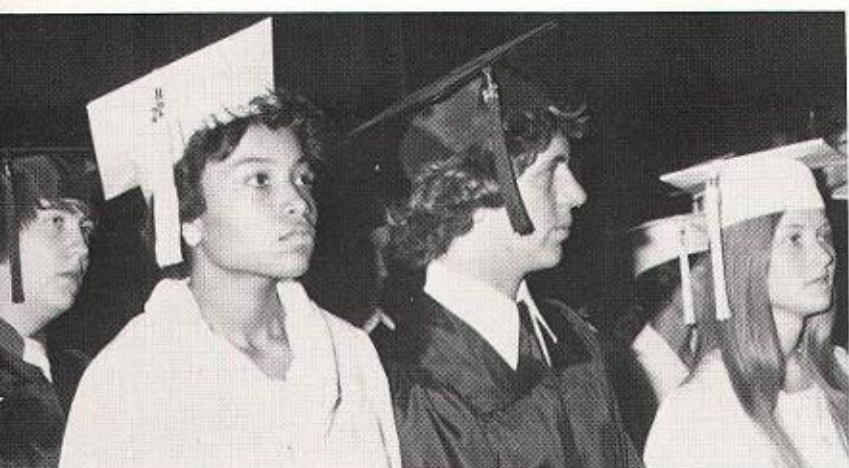

Alex Burgess receives his diploma.

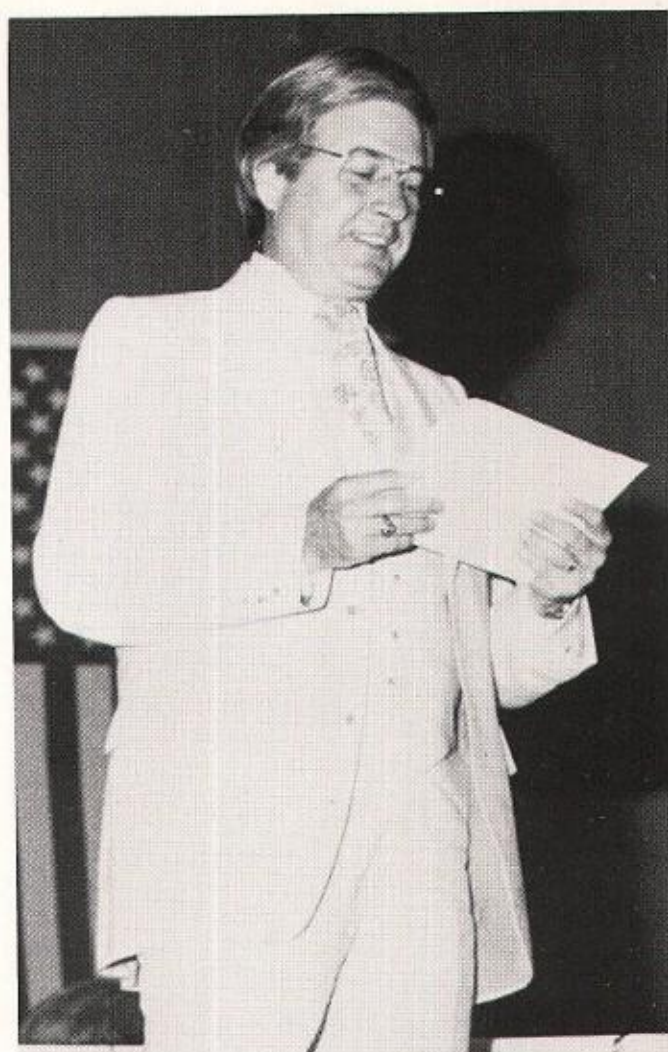

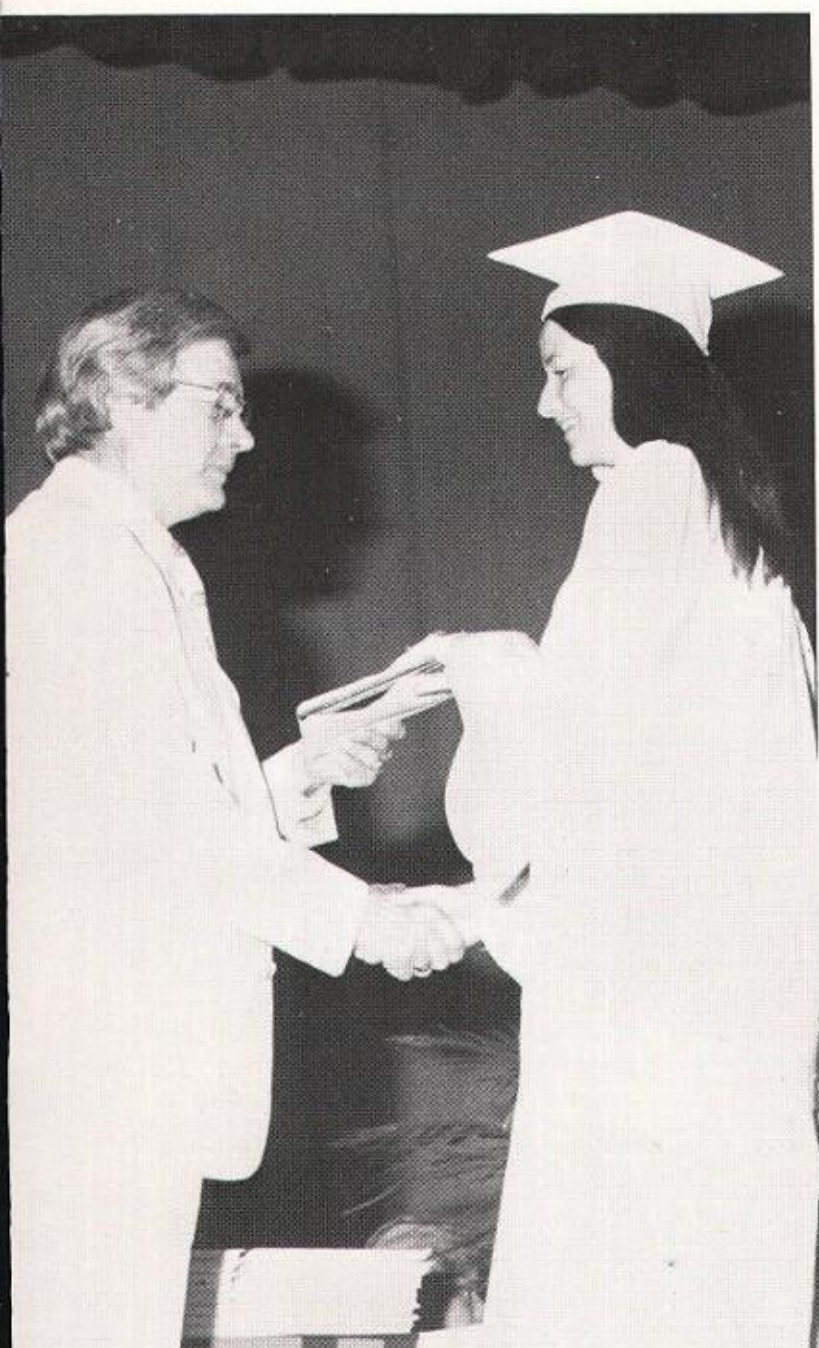

The Chorale sings the "Alma Mater."

The Graduates await their turn.

Mr. McIlwain presents the diplomas.

SENIORS ENJOY END OF THE YEAR ACTIVITIES!

Seniors enjoy senior night.

The "end of the year activities" included Senior Night, a school sponsored evening of food, fun and games on Friday, May 27. Prizes were awarded by Mr. McIlwain, and it was a fun evening for all. A bowling party after graduation served as a last get together for the graduating seniors. And last but not least, the traditional painting of the rocks — the seniors "last fling!"

Morris gets his prize!

Terry wins, too!

FADS, FANCIES, FUN, AND . . . FRIENDSHIPS!

Expressions of our times:
 "snakin' " "What can I say?"
 "let's book!" "What's in the café — chuck wagon chile again?"

Walking through the crowded halls at school
Looking neither right nor left but down at my shoes,
Staring straight ahead
pretending others aren't there, wanting to reach out
but not quite ready to dare.
I've passed up many people whom I see every day
Not giving them a second look just staying far away.
I've labeled many others as snobs and creeps and such

When I don't even talk to them or get to know them much.
I'm afraid to make the first move to smile or say "Hello,"
Afraid of getting a stare in return or stoney silence to make my pride burn.
I wish I didn't seem quite so cold on the outside.
Deep in my soul I want to reach out.
I really do!
Because I'd like to be friends with someone like you.

by Ruth Lipscomb

Themes of our times:

Homecoming "Movies," Prom, "A Time For Us," Mayfair, —
Victorian Age . . .

Of thee we sing our alma mater,
Hear the praise we cry:
May our hearts that joy has gladdened
Hold your honor ever high.
Our thoughts will ever turn to thee
The school that we revere
And through the years in memory
South Charleston High most
dear.

A SALUTE TO "THE OLD PRO"

We love you, Pro, and we will never forget you. You have been our friend at SCHS, and we thank you for your kindness and friendship.

WE ARE WITH YOU.
WE ARE WITH YOU!
WE ARE WITH YOU!
